Association Revitalized

The New Jersey Women Lawyers Association (NJWLA) is an independent association of New Jersey women lawyers. Our mission is to retain women in the legal profession through education and activism, to promote our members to the highest levels of law firm, government, academic, community and corporate positions and to endorse qualified female attorneys for appointments to the state and federal judiciary. NJWLA will foster leadership among its members by promoting professional activities, mentoring, educational programs and networking functions. NJWLA will create task forces to study and advise our membership on gender equity challenges and other issues unique to women in the profession, including "glass ceiling," "maternal wall," "daughter track," pregnancy, caregiver discrimination, and sexual harassment as well as on additional racial and ethnic barriers that women of color in the legal profession face. NJWLA will be the voice on all issues of importance to women engaged in the practice of law in the state of New Jersey.

JUNE 29, 2006: Installation Ceremony by New Jersey Superior Court Judge Francine Schott.

It is an exciting time for women lawyers in New Jersey. We look forward to working with our members on efforts to advance and retain women in the legal profession. The current NJWLA Leadership is a dynamic group of impressive women leaders in the law. Their devotion, exceptional skills and insights will help NJWLA to continue to overcome the many barriers that exist and move, with persistence, toward ensuring the advancement of women to the highest levels in the legal profession.
