PRESS RELEASE

For Immediate Release

College of Labor and Employment Lawyers

Annapolis, Maryland – In September 2016, Kirsten Scheurer Branigan, Esq. was named to the 2016 elected group of Fellows of the College of Labor and Employment Lawyers. The College of Labor and Employment Lawyers, headquartered in Annapolis, Maryland, was founded in 1995 on the 60th anniversary of the National Labor Relations Board and the 30th anniversary of Title VII and Executive Order 11246. The College began as a non-profit professional association honoring the leading lawyers nationwide in the practice of Labor and Employment Law. It has now evolved to become an intellectual and practical resource for the support of the labor and employment profession and its many audiences. The primary purpose of the College is recognition of individuals, sharing knowledge and delivering value to the many different groups who can benefit from its value model.

Nomination as a Fellow is limited to those who have been in the field of labor and employment law for at least 20 years and meet this highest professional qualifications and ethical standards. Additionally, nomination as a Fellow reflects that the individual stands out to newer attorneys as one who should be emulated due to their high level of character, integrity and professional expertise and leadership.

Ms. Branigan was named a Fellow along with a nationwide group of highly accomplished attorneys who all have earned the respect of the bench, opposing counsel and the community. This year's Fellows will be inducted at the 21st Annual Induction Dinner in Chicago, IL on November 12, 2016 at the Aon Grand Ballroom.
