PRESS RELEASE

For Immediate Release

NJWLA Gala

Cedar Grove, New Jersey – Kirsten Scheurer Branigan was honored at the 9th annual Women’s Initiative and Leaders in the Law (WILL) Platinum Gala in front of a sold out crowd of approximately more than 700 distinguished guests, including members of the New Jersey and Federal Judiciary. The March 22, 2016 event honored leaders from the Judicial, Public, Corporate and Private Law Firm sectors and was held at The Grove, in Cedar Grove, NJ.

Ms. Branigan was one of five recipients of the WILL Platinum Award and received her honor for her work in the private sector. Other award winners at the event were the Honorable Lois H. Goodman for her work in the federal judicial sector, Honorable Harriet E. Derman, P.J.S.C. (Ret.) for the state judicial sector, Michelline Davis, Esq. for the corporate sector, and the Honorable Carolyn A. Murray for the public sector.

As NJWLA President from 2006-2008, Ms. Branigan was responsible for creating the WILL concept and was a key player in planning the first WILL Platinum Gala. The organization now also bestows the Kirsten Scheurer Branigan Presidential Leadership Award yearly to a member that, like Ms. Branigan, is dedicated to the advancement and retention of women in the legal profession.
