Collaborative Measures for Resolving Conflict

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Saint Peter's Business Law Association Celebrates Women's History Month

Saint Peter's University Business Law Association and the Accountancy and Business Law Departments held a celebration of Women's History Month on March 25, 2015. The celebration honored women and those who have made a significant contribution to the progression of women's rights and advancement.

Kirsten Scheurer Branigan was a featured guest lecturer, with a presentation entitled: "800 Years Since the Magna Carta – The Impact on Women's Rights." Other guest presenters were Captain Jean O'Brien, USNR commanding officer, who led a presentation titled, "Women's Issues in the Military," and Dr. Lori Buza with a demonstration titled, "Empowering Women, Rape Awareness and Self Defense." The film "Iron Jawed Angels," a movie about the life of Alice Paul and the women's suffrage movement, was also shown at the event.
